

Visit to The Mansion House Art Collection, London, EC4N 8BH

Monday, 27 October 2025

Cost: £25

Travel costs to/from London are not included

BOOKING FORM

We have organised an exclusive guided tour of the Art Collection at the Mansion House, the official residence of the Lord Mayor of London. The Grade One listed building is renowned for its architecture and sumptuous interiors in the Palladian style, but it also houses a distinguished collection of seventeenth century Dutch and Flemish landscapes, still lifes and genre scenes, bequeathed by the property magnate, Harold Samuel.

Highlights in the collection include The Merry Lute Player (1624-1628) by Frans Hals and numerous works by Flemish and Dutch masters, including Nicolaes Maes, Pieter de Hooch, Jacob van Ruisdael and Aelbert Cuyp. It is considered one of the finest art collections assembled in the UK during the twentieth century.

Programme

- 10.40 Meet outside the Walbrook Entrance on the west side of the Mansion House
- 10.45 Security screening at Mansion House
- 11.00 City of London Guide Rosaleen Garvey will lead a private tour of the Art Collection
- 12:30 Tour ends

The Nearest Underground station is Bank. Exit 8 for the Walbrook Entrance.

Please note space on this visit is limited —the maximum group size is twenty.

The building is equipped with lift access to all floors. Please note, however, that part of the art collection hangs on staircase galleries, which may make it challenging for some visitors to view the entire collection.
