

Visit to the Essex Collection of Art from Latin America (ESCALA)

Wednesday, 05 March 2025

Places are limited!

Booking Form

ESCALA, at the University of Essex, is the most complete resource for contemporary Latin American art in the UK and is the largest of its kind in Europe. It is housed in the Constable Building, next to the Wivenhoe House Hotel, Wivenhoe Park, Park Road, Colchester, CO4 3FA.

The visit will be led by ESCALA's curator, Dr Sarah Demolo, and will consist of an introductory talk and viewing of selected artworks. The objects in the collection embrace Latin American iconography and indigenous art, often symbolising human rights and environmental themes.

The cost is £18 per person

Optional: Wivenhoe House Hotel serves an Afternoon Tea at £27.50 per person, with vegetarian and vegan options available. Please note: Afternoon Tea service at the hotel ends at 4 pm. The University campus also has other cafés and restaurants a short walk from the Constable Building.

Free parking is available for visitors in front of the Constable Building. Parking in front of Wivenhoe House Hotel is for patrons of the hotel, including those who are taking Afternoon Tea, who must provide their car registration details to the front desk. Elsewhere at the University, visitor parking is by cashless payment, using the ParkSmart app. There are bus services between Colchester and the University, with a bus stop approximately 150 metres from the venue.

MEET: at the entrance to the Constable Building at 1.45 pm for a 2 pm start.
